4. Co-Chairs Report

a. APD Meeting with Chief Flaherty

- Response to a suspicious person thought to have a gun generated questions about whether this was racial profiling and whether the level of response was necessary. Chief Flaherty said it was an appropriate response. A delay in reporting required a broader response. Ultimately, there was no threat. Will do a retraining of staff.
 - Discussion about:
 - desire to know what exactly happened and what is the normal procedure for the school and for the APD?
 - how did the school support the person who was mistakenly identified
 - School WG to explore further
- Checking whether the protocol of reporting to the AHRC is being followed properly.
- Removal of posters of kidnap victims: Treating as hate incidents, so should be reported, but not a crime to remove them from public property.
- Graffiti at the Alewife underpass: reported to AHRC, who told police, and was removed.

b. DEI Co-Chairs

- Rainbow Commission: Leadership transition coming, Transgender Day of Resilience coming up, AHRC is cosponsoring
- Disability Commission working on budgeting issues
- Annual Reports are all due in January
- Other Commissions do not make statements

d. Meeting with Rabbi Avi from the Center for Jewish Life and two of his congregants: Concern expressed about the AHRC statement. Anger and disappointment, especially about the word “inhumane.” AHRC co-chairs explained the process for the most recent statement. Discussed planning for Community Conversations on Anti-Semitism, Community Gatherings, and staying in contact. Left with a better understanding of each other.

- Motion by Com. Bauer to establish an ad hoc WG to consider whether statements are useful and under what conditions, and to pause on statements until the WG reports back in the next meeting, seconded by Com. Horowitz. Discussion on the variety of statements we do, whether a call to action is better, and the AHRC's role to educate. The motion passed unanimously.

4. Proposed Statement calling for a ceasefire in Israel–tabled
